

After removing the reading and math scores, answer the following questions:

How is the District Summary Affected?

Removing the 9th grade scores had minimal effect at the district level. It lowered Average Math Scores by - 0.1% and lowered the % Passing in Math, Reading, and Overall Passing by -1% respectively.

How is the school summary affected?

Thomas High moved from one of the Top 5 to one of the Bottom 5 as removing their 9th grade reading and math scores. But, removing Thomas High's Avg Scores for Math and Reading had a negligible effect of <1% on the 10th, 11th, and 12th results.

Did removing the scores affect other school scores by grade?

Math and Reading Scores for all other schools were not affected, with NaN values replacing Thomas High 9th Grade scores.

Did Results Change Per Capita Spending?

Thomas High fell into the $630 - $644 per capita spending bin and with and their scores lowered for % Passing Math, Reading, and Overall, the bin was lowered an avg of 6-7% points for the three metrics. The Avg Math and Reading Scores were not affected.

Did results change based on school size?

Thomas High fell into the Medium bin and the effect was similar to the Per Capita Spending results.

Did results change based on school type?

Because Thomas High is a charter school, the change affected the % Passing numbers for Charter Schools. The Charter school % Overall Passing dropped from 95% to 92%.